

WITH UNDERSTANDING
COMES CALM, LLC

Contract for Educator Collaboration

Julie Skolnick, M.A., J.D. of With Understanding Comes Calm, LLC will provide a 60 minute presentation to educators, that includes an opportunity for Q&A and classroom strategy development.

Meeting Includes: (1 hour)

- ✓ Overview of what it means to be Gifted and Twice Exceptional
- ✓ Dive into your student’s specific profile
- ✓ Teacher Q&A and Strategy Development (40 Minutes)

Prep Time: (1.5 hour)

- ✓ Review documents
- ✓ Discuss goals with educators

Follow up: (.5 hour)

- ✓ Emails to teachers
- ✓ Overview to parents (optional)

Date: TBD

Time: TBD

Venue: Virtual

Rate: $675 ($225/hour)

If cancellation occurs within two weeks of the scheduled collaboration, client will incur a 50% charge or $337.50.

Presentation Goals:

- Create collaborative atmosphere encouraging teachers to share their struggles and questions
- Provide comprehensive understanding to teachers about the gifted/2e profile
- Present profile of specific student; how to understand behaviors and reactions (this requires parent agreement and shared information based on a Release Form) (Optional)
- Craft strategies that teachers can use to bring out the best and raise self confidence in student
- Create a springboard for parent/teacher collaboration based on shared understanding

You are engaging Julie Skolnick, M.A., J.D. because of her expertise in giftedness and twice exceptionality through her service, With Understanding Comes Calm, LLC. Ms. Skolnick guides parents of 2e children, mentors 2e adults, trains educators and collaborates with clinicians on how to be reach and teach 2e students. Ms. Skolnick is trained in the “How to Put the Person into Personalized Learning” through the 2e Center for Professional Development. She serves as Secretary to the Maryland State Gifted and Talented Advisory Council, is an advisor for the Masters of Education Program for the Bridges Graduate School of Cognitive Diversity, is the Maryland liaison and Parent Group Facilitator for Supporting the Emotional Needs of the Gifted (SENG), is an member of the 2e Special Interest Group for the National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC) and serves as an advisor to “The G Word” feature documentary currently in production. Ms. Skolnick’s experience writing and speaking about the topic and her personal experience as the parent of three twice exceptional children also informs her success as an parent, educator and clinician consultant. As Producer of the Let’s Talk 2e global virtual conferences, Founder of the Let’s Talk 2e Community, and Host of 2eResources.com, Ms. Skolnick is a world-wide influencer in the field of twice exceptionality. Client recognizes that Julie Skolnick’s M.A. and J.D. degrees do not directly include education or mental health. Julie’s passion for the twice-exceptional population is profound and translates into her writing, teaching and speaking engagements.

Signed: _____
Julie F. Skolnick, M.A., J.D.

Signed: _____
Parent/Client

Date: 1.18.22

Date: _____